

Proclamation

“OURAY COUNTY PUBLIC HEALTH SPECIAL RECOGNITION DAY”

OCTOBER 4

WHEREAS,

Ouray County Project Public Health Ready has achieved special recognition and completion; and

WHEREAS,

the Board of County Commissioners is very appreciative of the collaborative multi-county, state and federal, and interagency partnerships; and

WHEREAS,

partnerships are essential to providing effective and proactive public health services and emergency response; and

WHEREAS,

one-thousand-plus pages have been successfully submitted electronically to NACCHO (National Association of County and City Health Officials); and

WHEREAS,

Ouray County Public Health was awarded special recognition; and

WHEREAS,

because of our dedicated Public Health staff, especially Cheryl Roberts and Glenn Boyd, along with Ouray County EMS, the Ouray County Sheriff, and other regional, state and federal partners, the level of emergency response in Ouray County is deemed to be very high; and we especially want to recognize the hard work, innovation, leadership and professional dissemination of institutional knowledge by Cheryl Roberts and Glenn Boyd.

WHEREAS,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT PROCLAIMED, that the Ouray County Board of County Commissioners hereby designates October 4, OURAY COUNTY PUBLIC HEALTH SPECIAL RECOGNITION DAY.

Adopted this 18th day of October, 2011.
